General Comment

Please do not threat us like some idiot or child. I am retired and have been using options as additional income to my IRA account very successfully for several years. It is how I make the addition cash I need since the government has determined to take all our interest bearing income away. Unless your goal is to make every retired person a poverty statistic please do NOT initiate this senseless bill into action. You will certainly be putting many of us on the soup line. The government does not need more people to feed or support.
